Steven A. Leibo : East and Southeast Asia 2016-2017 (World Today (Stryker)) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised East and Southeast Asia 2016-2017 (World Today (Stryker)):

Updated annually, East Southeast Asia provides just enough historical background on the evolution of Modern East Southeast Asia to help students gain a thorough understanding in one semester of contemporary developments in this vital region. Broad introductory regional and comparative chapters are followed by distinct sections on each country in the region. The combination of factual accuracy and up-to-date detail along with its informed projections make this an outstanding resource for researchers, practitioners in international development, media professionals, government officials, potential investors, and students. Now in its 49th edition, the content is thorough yet perfect for a one-semester introductory course or general library reference. Available in both print and e-book formats and priced low to fit student and library budgets.

About the Author Steven Leibo, PhD, is professor of international history politics at the Sage Colleges and an international affairs commentator for WAMC Northeast Public Radio.
