Averroes, Ibrahim Najjar : Faith and Reason in Islam: Averroes' Exposition of Religious Arguments (Great Islamic Writings) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Faith and Reason in Islam: Averroes' Exposition of Religious Arguments (Great Islamic Writings):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Good translation and useful resource. By Igor H. Souza Very useful translation of Averroes' al-Kashf an-Manahij al-Adilla (Clarification of the Systems of Proof), a far superior edition to the old 1921 edition. An exposé of Averroes' main ideas about religion and its relationship to philosophy, part of a trilogy that also includes the Decisive Treatise. Translation is clear, in a concise volume, although somewhat pricey for what it is. I cannot give it 5 stars only because delivery was late (USPS) despite having Prime.

The first translation available in English of a key work by the twelfth-century Muslim philosopher Averroes, which reveals his controversial views about reason, religion, and humankind's relationship with God. Suitable both for scholars and interested readers, this unique text proves that today's disputes between religion, reason, and science are far from a new phenomenon.

About the Author Ibrahim Najjar teaches philosophy and is Advisor to the Chancellor at the University of Sharjah, in the United Arab Emirates. He has published several books and many articles on Western and Islamic philosophy, in both English and Arabic.
