Fossilized Customs is a research tool that shows the reader how our customs developed. Words and patterns we have inherited from the past reveal how many traditions originated from pagan sources. This book is the culmination of 32 years of research (1983 through 2015). Unveiling the beast as the reign of Babel allows the reader to finally put all the pieces of the puzzle together. Recommended for ages 18 and over.

About the Author Lew White is the Author of many books, and a researcher of primary Hebrew.
