Stephan Feuchtwang, Wang Mingming : Grassroots Charisma: Four Local Leaders in China (Routledge Studies on China in Transition) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Grassroots Charisma: Four Local Leaders in China (Routledge Studies on China in Transition):

This book relates the stories of four leaders under very different political regimes: Colonial, Nationalist and Communist. The authors compare Chinese notions of respect and inspiration with their equivalents in other religious and political histories of colonial and post-colonial modernity, thereby producing a thorough re-working of the idea of charisma. The result is an intriguing study of the relationship between religious and political authority in a changing world.

'This is a fascinating book to read and will remain useful for a long time to come for both university students and researchers in the field.' - The Journal of Asian Studies
