Learn American History YOUR way with HIST4! HIST4's easy-reference, paperback format presents course content through visually-engaging chapters as well as Chapter Review Cards that consolidate the best review material into a ready-made study tool. The chapters are written as a narrative, telling the story of the American past while balancing social, political, economic, and cultural history. With the textbook or on its own, HIST Online allows easy exploration of HIST4 anywhere, anytime -- including on your device. Collect your notes and create StudyBits from interactive content as you go to remember what's important. Then, either use preset study resources, or personalize the product through easy-to-use tags and filters to prioritize your study time. Make and review flashcards, review related content, and track your progress with Concept Tracker, all in one place and at an affordable price.

"The online help was great. The games made it so it wasn't boring and I retained more of the information." "I like the online quizzes. They are very helpful. So are the chapter review cards. I use them before each exam." "I used all aspects of the 4LTR Press solutions. I found them very helpful study tools." About the Author Kevin M. Schultz is a professor of history at the University of Illinois at Chicago (UIC), one of the most diverse campuses in the country. With specializations in American religious, ethnic, racial, and intellectual life, he is currently president of the Society for U.S. Intellectual History. His most recent book, BUCKLEY AND MAILER: THE DIFFICULT FRIENDSHIP THAT SHAPED THE SIXTIES (W.W. Norton Co.), came out in 2015 and was an Amazon.com #1 New Release in American History. The book was then reviewed widely, including in The New Yorker, the Wall Street Journal, Esquire, the Chicago Tribune, the LA Times and dozens more venues. His first book, TRI-FAITH AMERICA: HOW POSTWAR CATHOLICS AND JEWS HELPED AMERICA REALIZE ITS PROTESTANT PROMISE, was published by Oxford University Press in 2011, and his essays have appeared in THE JOURNAL OF AMERICAN HISTORY, AMERICAN QUARTERLY, THE JOURNAL OF THE AMERICAN ACADEMY OF RELIGION, LABOR HISTORY, and several other venues, popular and academic alike. An award-winning teacher, he received his B.A. from Vanderbilt University and his PhD from the University of California, Berkeley.
