Well done0 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Atheism is Really the topic Here!By KEN TELLS ALLThis book has to do more about the author's atheism than the Temple Mount. He denies the after life and the immortal soul. No G-d means no afterlife and a Holy Temple that is not holy at all.Sad to see this guy misinterpret the teachings of Judaism and the factual archaeology that confirms that the Jewish Temple did stand at the present location.

There seem to be no other place on earth, if desecrated or conquered, that could inflame and arouse the intense passions of countless of devout believers. Jews, Christians, or Muslims feel the ultimate focal point of their uncompromising desire for dominion and presence in that "most holy place" is the reason for the ever explosive tinder box in the turbulent Middle East. The "ground zero" of this focal point is "The Temple Mount" in Jerusalem. The Crusaders marched on Jerusalem to "liberate it and "The Temple Mount" from the Muslim "infidels." Salah a- Din marched on Jerusalem to re-conquer it and "The Temple Mount" from the Christian "infidels." In the "Six Day War" Jews have finally reclaimed the city and their "Temple Mount" from the Muslim "infidels." Ever since, Jews, Christians, and Muslims have never given up their non-negotiable intense desire to have an absolute dominion over The Holy City and "The Temple Mount." Jews have religious and historic reasons for maintaining absolute control over Jerusalem and especially "The Temple Mount." Christians have similar feelings. Muslims maintain, according to their beliefs, that Jerusalem is holy because their prophet Muhammad has ascended up to Heaven from the mosque located in "The Temple Mount." Shockingly as it may sound, though Jerusalem is "The Holy City," what is believed to be the location of "The Temple Mount" is nothing, though unintentionally, but a hoax - the "Hoax of the Millennium." In the pages of this work, this 'audacious' contention to many, will be amply proven, beyond the shadow of a doubt, from the pages of the Bible as well as from faithful historic accounts of Jews, contemporary non- Jewish historians, Christian and Muslim recorded and preserved accounts.

About the Author Mike Joseph was born in 1944 to a strict Biblically oriented Orthodox Jewish family in British Aden Yemen. In 1949 his entire family moved to Israel, after a local Arab Pogrom took the lives of his mother and three young brothers. In 1963 the author moved to Paris, France to study French and work in the Fashion industry. In late 1965 the author moved to New York where, about four years later, a change in his religious convictions led him to a community practicing both the Old and New Testament teachings and laws of the Bible. From 1970 to 1975 the author served on the faculty of a local private college in Pasadena, California - teaching both modern and Biblical Hebrew to both students and ministers on Sabbatical year. At the same time, the author attended classes and graduated with a B.A. degree in Liberal Arts - with a major in Theology. After graduation in 1975 and later ordination, Mr. Joseph began his service in the Field Ministry in the local Pasadena area congregations. Through the years, Mr. Joseph has published and written four books and dozens of articles about Biblical, historic, and various subjects in human relationships. The author is a frequent guest speaker on several Radio Talk shows, both in the United States and other countries, as well as a guest speaker in several conventions. He presently attends in a local congregation in the West valley area of San Fernando Valley, California. The author also lectures on Bible Law and various subjects from both Old and New Testaments on various websites around the world and the internet website: www.teachingthelaw.org
