Catherine Armstrong, Laura M. Chmielewski : The Atlantic Experience: Peoples, Places, Ideas before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Atlantic Experience: Peoples, Places, Ideas:

Providing a succinct yet comprehensive introduction to the history of the Atlantic world in its entirety, The Atlantic

Experience traces the first Portuguese journeys to the West coast of Africa in the mid-fifteenth century through to the abolition of slavery in America in the late-nineteenth century. Bringing together the histories of Europe, Africa and the Americas, this book supersedes a history of nations, foregrounds previously neglected parts of these continents, and explores the region as a holistic entity that encompassed people from many different areas, ethnic groups and national backgrounds. Distilling this huge topic into key themes such as conquest, trade, race and migration, Catherine Armstrong and Laura Chmielewski's chronological survey illuminates the crucial aspects of this cutting edge field.

'The Atlantic Experience has the potential to become the leading text in the field for both teachers and students of the Atlantic world and Atlantic history.' - David Ceri Jones, Lecturer in History, Aberystwyth University, UK
