By the end of 19th century, the British occupied the region, and named 'CHIN HILLS' and ruled it according to the 'CHIN HILLS REGULATION'. Then, the American missionaries came to the CHIN HILLS to reach its people with the gospel of Jesus Christ. Chester U. Strait was one among them. Dr. Strait was, as I see, the only missiologist--scholar in misison studies. He made a dept-in interviews with a close-up excussion into the religion and cultural anthropology of the people, especially in HAKA region. He made his THM THD program in the Berkeley Baptist Divinity School {now changed. I've just forgotten the new name of the seminary}, with the topics ' THE CHINS' CONCEPTION OF DEATH AND A FUTURE LIFE ' and ' A HISTORY AND INTERPRITATOIN OF CHIN SCRIFICE ' respectively during 1932-34. I appreciate him a lot, and I did make my doctoral disertation INTERPRETING THE RELIGIOUS CONVERSIONS OF THE PEOPLE OF MYANMAR' in Yonsei, Univ., Seoul, Korea, refering Dr. Strait's studies and arguments. I was chasing that precious and unvaluable theses, and finally unearthed.Now I am very glad and grateful that the Straits, his offsprings, successfully produced a book of their grandfather, missiologist, the Rev. Dr. Strait, namely, THE CHIN PEOPLE: A SELECTIVE HISTORY AND ANTHROPOLOGY OF THE CHIN PEOPLE. had been chasing this book also, since it was first released, and only now, I have caught it in my hand. I immediately made announcement of the book as soon as I have got it and now many Chin people around the globe have been dying to get the book. It will be a best selling one among the Chins. I highly herewith recommend the book for intercultural studies, cultural anthropology, mission studies, missiology.Blessings,Dr. Cope

Moving upstream on the Irrawaddy broad tide, the ocean liner approaches the city of Rangoon, and the gold-leafed pinnacle of the celebrated Shwe Dagon pagoda welcomes it as it rises magnificently in the morning sunlight. The traveler is intrigued with the claim that this ancient shrine has been standing for three thousand years. This injects an anachronism, since Buddhism was founded not more than twenty-five centuries ago and something less than that for its lodgment in Burma. But no one seems to be embarrassed nor stultified by what, for them, is merely a slight chronological inaccuracy, which derives from the time-clocked occidental measurements, for theirs is that timeless eternity of the East.
