"Peter Feldmeier is definitely to be commended for his writing style, which is accessible and presents complex subject matters well. I have no doubt that this book will soon become a standard in the field. It is very informative and reliable, global in scope, and provides a wealth of information."--Christian Eberhart, University of Houston "The author has done a masterful job in gathering an enormous number of facts about the Christian tradition. Especially noteworthy are his efforts to discuss the entire tradition in common, east and west, and across cultures."--Frederick Parrella, Santa Clara University About the Author Peter Feldmeier is the Murray/Bacik Endowed Chair of Catholic Studies at the University of Toledo and the author of several books about Christian theology, including The God Conflict (2014), Encounters in Faith (2011), and The Path of Wisdom (2011).
