Benedictus de Spinoza : The Essential Spinoza: Ethics and Related Writings (Hackett Classics) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised The Essential Spinoza: Ethics and Related Writings (Hackett Classics):

2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. PerfectBy ElementalityThis is a perfect version of the Ethics. Shirley's translation is good, but what's better is the extensive reference material in the back of the book. Each proposition is listed singly, without proofs or scholia; a list of definitions and axioms; and also a cross-reference of each definition, axiom, or previous proposition Spinoza uses to prove any given proposition. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. This is absolutely so great. By Kindle Customer 5/5 would definitely Spinoza all over again. So good. Once more around the block sweet Spinoza. So good. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. The essential Spinoza By Customer A new book, with a good selection of Spinoza works. I think the book is a must reading if you are considering Spinoza as a theme for further and deeper studies or even if you need/want to have a general opinion about this important author.

Designed to facilitate a thoughtful and informed reading of Spinoza's Ethics, this anthology provides the Ethics, related writings, and two valuable appendices: List of Propositions from the Ethics, which helps readers to trace the development of key themes; and Citations in Proofs, a list of all the propositions, corollaries, and scholia in the Ethics, together with all the definitions, axioms, propositions, corollaries, and scholia to which Spinoza refers in the proofs--thus, readers can locate, for a given item, each instance where Spinoza refers to it.

Absolutely magnificent edition! I will be using it in all my introductory courses. . . . I also will use it in my 16th and 17th-century History of Philosophy course. . . . Just a wonderful collection, great translations, good editorial additions as well. Terrific selection! --Abba Lessing, Professor of Philosophy, Lake Forest College
